

Winter 2009 January 5 - March 15

Drawing and Painting

Painting & Drawing

Detail of Red Awnings
Oil on canvas
by Karen Perl

Karen Perl, instructor

Mixed skill level class, for beginners and those continuing their studies in charcoal, pastel, oil, acrylic, or watercolor. Choose your own media.

Class Tuition $160, GAC members $145 (Add an additional hour of uninstruced painting time for $20 more)
8 weeks

Saturdays 12:00 - 2:00 pm
January 10 - February 28

Thursdays 7:00 pm - 9:00 pm
January 8 - February 26

An introduction to line, value, color and media. Focusing on fundamentals & developing a personal creative vision.

Portraiture

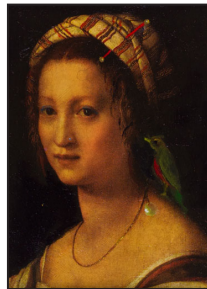

Grace Cole, instructor

Medium and advanced level class
Class Tuition: $240, GAC members $216
10 weeks

Sundays 9:00 - 12:00 noon
January 11 - March 15

Wednesdays 9:00am - 12:00 noon
January 7 - March 11

Students will progress from black and white charcoal pencil drawing to painting in full color. Bring a clear, uncomplicated, sharp black and white photo of a head, 5" x 7", to begin.

Identity Compress
Oil on canvas
by Grace Cole

Family Knitting

Sarah B. Ellis, instructor

Class Tuition: $120, GAC members $108.
6 weeks

Tuesdays 7:00 - 9:00 pm
January 6 - February 10

Beginning and Intermediate level class for all ages. Beginning knitters will learn to Detail of knitted piece by Pate Conaway

cast on, knit, purl, increase, decrease, and bind off. Intermediate knitters will work at their own pace on patterns of their choice with the guidance of the instructor. Knit whatever your heart desires: hat, scarf, socks, sweater, shawl..... or if you don't know what to knit Sarah can help you find a pattern to meet your skill level.

Three GAC membership options are available:

Patron of the Arts $60. per year. Provides discounts on classes.

Associate Artist Membership $100. per year. Benefits are:

- participation in all events (Art Salons, Critique Sessions & Field Trips)
- exhibition in our twice yearly Open Studio and Group Shows.
- a page on our website www.GreenleafArtCenter.com

Associate Open Studio Artist Membership $75. mo. (Requires an Associate Artist Membership first.) This membership provides all the benefits listed above plus 24 hour access to open studio area to work. We provide easels, tables, lockers and painting racks.

Figure Drawing

Karen Perl, instructor

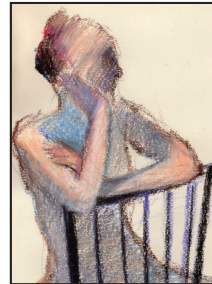

Mixed skill level class, for beginners & those continuing their studies.

Class Tuition: $200, GAC members $180
8 weeks

Saturdays 9:00 - 11:00 am
January 10 - February 28

Tuesdays 7:00 - 9:00 pm
January 6 - February 24

Draw or paint the figure. An exploration of the figure as subject matter. Learn how to render the figure through observation of a live model. Emphasis will be on color, shading, and gaining an understanding of the nature of the human form. Some nude, some costumed classes.

Figure,
Oil pastel on paper
by Karen Perl

General Painting

Grace Cole, instructor

Class Tuition: $240, GAC members $216.
10 weeks

Thursdays 10:00 - 1:00 pm
January 8 - March 12

This class is for students who want to stretch their talents. Oil, acrylic, watercolor and pencil medias, students will learn basic to advanced techniques of painting.

Museum Abundance
Oil on canvas
by Grace Cole

Goal Setting for the Creative Mind

Lisa Kemp, instructor

Class Tuition $100, 4 weeks

Wednesdays 7:00 - 9:00 pm
January 7 - January 28

Creative types can get overwhelmed by all their interests and activities, or simply get off-track in the course of daily life. If you'd like to accomplish goals and move toward your dreams, this class is for you! In this series of four weekly classes, we'll use a proven process and group support to identify and achieve our goals.

Drawing Caricatures

Darick Maasen, instructor

Class Tuition $120, 4 weeks

Wednesdays 7:00 - 9:00 pm
January 5 - January 26

Caracature drawing is a fun skill that can also be profitable, whether you are looking for a way to make a little extra cash, or just impress your friends at parties. This class will explore both the fundamental skills of drawing faces live and quickly (no erasers needed!) as well as the subtle techniques that make people laugh.

Class size limited
Register early!!!

Private Study

Tuition $35. per hour

You pick the area of study plus the time and day - we'll find the teacher.

Classes for the Whole Family

Winter 2009

January 5 - March 15

Kids Art

Creature Feature! Story & Art Time

Kathleen Paluch, art instructor with guest storytellers from local theatre groups

Tuition $90, 6 weeks
Ages 2-5 years

Saturdays 9:30 -10:30 am
January 10 - February 14

Animals of all shapes and sizes - some real, some imagined! Join us for a fun-filled morning of stories (first 1/2 hour) and art exploration (second 1/2 hour). Perfect for budding artists and future writers! Children must be accompanied by an adult.

YogaKids & Crafts

Jennifer Erenberg, instructor

Tuition $90, 6 weeks

Sundays (4-6 years) 9:30 -10:30am
(7-9 years) 11:30-12:30pm
January 11 - February 15

A class focusing on the health benefits of yoga with a fun artistic twist! A great opportunity for your child to try yoga, have fun, and make a craft to take home. Designed to inspire, de-stress, and allow your child to be the master of their imagination.

Multimedia Art

Kathleen Paluch, instructor

Tuition $90, 6 weeks
Ages 5-8 years

Tuesdays 4:15 -5:15 pm
January 6 - February 10

Fridays 4:15 - 5:15 pm
January 9 - February 13

A trip around the world to study the work of famous artists while exploring the elements of art. Students will work with line, color, shapes and texture in a variety of materials. Students will be introduced to working on an easel, painting and drawing.

Cartooning

Darick Maasen, instructor

Tuition $120, 6 weeks
Ages 8-12 years

Tuesdays 5:30 - 7:30 pm
January 6 - February 10

This class will teach the fundamental aspects of cartooning, such as character design, the language of cartooning, and the simple shapes that go on to become the next "Sponge-Bob Square-pants". We will build on our drawing skills and increase our understanding of simple shapes that evolve into complex dimensional characters. That's all folks!

Class semesters run in 4, 6, 8 and 10 week sessions:
Fall Session 2009: September 21 - December 11
Winter Session 2009: January 5 - March 15
Spring Session 2009: March 29 - May 24
Summer Session 2009: June 30 - August 30

Teen Painting & Drawing

Kathleen Paluch, instructor

Ages 9 - 12 years
Tuition $120, 6 weeks

Sundays 10:00 am - 12:00 noon
January 11 - February 15

Mondays 4:15 - 6:15 pm
January 12 - February 16

Ages 12 - 15 years

Sundays 1:00 pm - 3:00 pm
January 11 - February 15

Wednesdays 4:15 - 6:15 pm
January 7 - February 11

Explore different techniques of painting and drawing. Students will build a familiarity with materials and techniques. This class is an introduction to line, value, color and composition focusing on fundamentals with an emphasis on developing observational skills.

Students are responsible for their own supplies for this class, a materials list will be furnished at registration.

Class Registration is accepted on a first come, first served basis, payment is due at registration. You must pre-register to ensure space in a class or workshop. Checks should be made to The Greenleaf Art Center. Refunds will be given less a processing fee of $10, you must withdraw from a class prior to the start date. If you know before registration, that you will miss a class session you can deduct the cost of the class from the total tuition. (After registration no cash refunds for missed classes is given, a makeup class can be arranged only within the same semester.)

The Greenleaf Art Center reserves the right to cancel a class or workshop if a minimum of enrollment is not met. List of supplies needed for each class will be available at registration. Family Discount - Pay full price for one and get 10% off tuition for all other members of the same family.

The Greenleaf Art Center is wheelchair accessible.

Faculty

Grace Cole Grace studied at Ecole Albert du Fois, Vihers, France with Ted Seth Jacobs. She had a private apprenticeship in painting, drawing and sculpture at the School of the Art Institute of Chicago. Grace was awarded the Golden Apple Award in recognition of exceptional instruction and student support from Prairie State College, Chicago Heights, IL, April 1994.

Sarah B. Ellis Sarah is an artist and designer from Michigan who knits whenever she has a spare moment. She loves printmaking and digital media but has found her needles and yarn to be a more portable craft. She first learned to knit at the age of 10, but did not take it up seriously until about 8 years ago. Memories of her grandfather's clever knit creations still inspire her today.

Jennifer Erenberg is a mother of two young sons and a YogaKids associate. She became interested in Yoga as an alternative to traditional working out. Falling in love with the study of yoga Jennifer began to explore options that would support a love of children and yoga. Coming upon YogaKids Intl. she was taken with the wonderful program they offered and felt it was an opportunity she wanted to pursue. Jennifer is committed to empowering children, and excited to share this amazing program with them!

Lisa Kemp Lisa Kemp has coached creatives into more successful and satisfying lives. Lisa is an award winning writer, an accomplished photographer, and a marketing communications professional. Information about her 2007 Chicago Artist Month project, The Artist Coaching Project, can be found at her website, www.neohippus.com.

Darick Maasen Darick Maasen is a seasoned caricature artist and professional illustrator. Appearing at Six Flags, private parties and countless festivals.

Kathleen Paluch Kathleen has a BFA from Mundelein College/ Loyola University. She has more than 30 years of experience teaching children and young adults.

Karen Perl Karen is a graduate of the School of the Art Institute where she studied painting and drawing with a strong emphasis on the figure. She was one of the winners of the 2005 Midwestern Competition of New American Painters and is represented by Packer-Schopf Gallery in Chicago.